

ORDER:
Motion Granted, as restricted by Docket No. 33.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)
v.)
WENDY ASKINS)

Case No. 3:13-00162
Magistrate Judge Knowles

U.S. Magistrate Judge

MOTION OF DEFENDANT WENDY ASKINS TO ENLARGE TRAVEL RESTRICTION

COMES NOW the Defendant, Wendy Askins, by and through her undersigned counsel, and hereby respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order enlarging her travel restriction to include Mississippi, Kentucky, North Carolina and Ohio as additional areas of permissible travel. In support hereof, Defendant states as follows:

1. On September 27, 2013, this Court released Defendant Askins on conditions which included, among other things, that her “travel [be] restricted to the Middle District of Tennessee and the Eastern District of Tennessee . . . unless pre-approved for out of district travel by Pretrial Services.” (Docket Entry 16, Release Order, ¶ 7(i)).

2. Ms. Askins is currently employed by a company that is engaged in the restoration of the historic 100-year-old Donoho Hotel and Entertainment Center located in Red Boiling Springs, Tennessee. Among her duties, she books the talent that performs at the adjacent Entertainment Center. She anticipates travel to Mississippi and North Carolina for this purpose. Red Boiling Springs is located in Macon County, Tennessee, and is only a few miles from the Kentucky line. Ms. Askins needs to be able to travel to Kentucky for the purpose of purchasing commercial kitchen equipment for the Donoho Hotel. Ms. Askins is employed in the Donoho Hotel project by an elderly woman who has siblings in Cincinnati, Ohio. This woman will often ask Ms. Askins to drive her
